Forecast For East Midlands
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 0400 on Wednesday 22 Sep 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Sunny spells on Wednesday.

Today:
Early mist and fog soon clearing on Wednesday leaving a fine, sunny morning. Cloud increasing during the afternoon and turning quite breezy later, staying largely dry though apart from the odd spot of rain over the Derbyshire hills. Maximum temperature 19 deg C (66 deg F).

Tonight:
Some clear spells before midnight but mostly cloudy after with patchy light rain over the Derbyshire hills. Windy everywhere but most parts dry. Minimum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Thursday:
Early cloud soon thinning to leave a bright morning. Cloud will increase again during the afternoon, though most parts will stay dry. Breezy. Feeling cooler than of late. Maximum temperature 17 deg C (63 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Friday windy, cloudy with rain over the hills, brighter further east. Lighter winds on Saturday, cloudy with isolated showers. Sunday will see further showers, heavy at times, breezy, sunny spells.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.